COMPLAINT

Several phone calls were made during the week of Oct 24, 2016. Emails were traded on Nov. 1st, 2016. I was finally given a claim number on Nov. 4th 2016.

Adjuster Brian Dennis from Cherokee Insurance offered $125 a day for a rental on Nov. 4, 2016. I am now in steepest financial trouble. My insurance can't do anything without a claim number. After 2 weeks we are done.

Cherokee finally sends 2 checks to fix the truck. Bruckners volvo has the truck ready on Dec. 7, 2016. It only took them 4 days to put it together.

We were in a home modification 4 days prior to the accident. WE LOST OUR HOME! Cherokee wouldn't help me get into a rental truck!

COMPLAINT

During this ordeal Brian Dennis (Cherokee claims ~~adv.~~) was removed. We were not notified. Ashley Kaykendall took over in or about April 2017. She emailed my contract ~~for~~ lawyer Mr. Kevin Soucek. Cherokee Insurance will not do anything until it's proven I am owner operator at the time of the accident. Vlad at Prime Logistics corp filed a claim saying I was only a company driver. Please refer to exhibits D, E..

Mr. Oheerl, an unemployment agent of Texas was told by Prime Logistics corp I was an owner operator so, I am not entitled to anything. Prime also informed my attorney Mr. Soucek, I was an owner operator. They refuse to give us my employee Ale. ~~At~~ Anytime during this ordeal, Pam Transport, Cherokee Ins. could have retained an in-house subpoena to finish this case. THEY CHOSE NOT TO!
